

Dance In The Rain

Ricki-Lee

No-one's gonna take away my sunshine
And no-one's gonna tear away my silver lining
Nobody's gonna tell me I can't do this, no
And there ain't nothin' that is gonna break my spirit

The calm before the storm
The cracks between these walls
And when the water falls, I'm gonna

Dance in the rain
No matter what they say
And when the raindrops fall
I'll stand up tall and feel it on my face
I'm gonna dance in the rain
Cuz this is my parade
And I won't back down
When it comes around, I feel it on my face

No-one's gonna take away these feelings
And no-one's gonna take away my dreams tonight
I don't need nobody's damn permission, no
And nobody's gonna shoot down my ambition

I'm louder than the thunder
Swim against the water
When it comes I'm gonna

Dance in the rain
No matter what they say
And when the raindrops fall
I'll stand up tall and feel it on my face
I'm gonna dance in the rain
Cuz this is my parade
And I won't back down
When it comes around, I feel it on my face

Bring it on, in a run, head on, into you
I won't play in your game, no, I won't run for cover

I'm gonna dance in the rain
No matter what they say
And when the raindrops fall
I'll stand up tall and feel it on my face
Dance in the rain
Cuz this is my parade
And I won't back down
When it comes around, I feel it on my face

No-one's gonna take away my sunshine
