

Hear No, See No, Speak No

Ricki-Lee

Ca-can't hear no see no speak no

You've been trying to call to kiss and make up
(Oh, oh, oh-a-oh, oh, oh, oh-a-oh)
You've been showing your face but I've seen enough
(Oh, oh, oh a oh, oh, oh, oh-a-oh)

How many times are you gonna say you're sorry?
And how many promises and fake apologies?
I don't care about you and I - There's no us

I can't hear no, see no, speak no
Get me out' this stone cold, black hole
Looking so hard to find and get back what you stole
I can't hear no, see no, speak no
Find a way to take back control
Cos this time I know for sure I'm letting you go

Le-le-letting go, le-le-letting go - ca-
can't hear no see no speak no

Every word that you say will fall on deaf ears
(Oh, oh, oh a oh, oh, oh, oh-a-oh)
I wish you'd shut your mouth and just disappear
(Oh, oh, oh a oh, oh, oh, oh-a-oh)

How many promises and fake apologies?
How many times am I gonna let you do this to me?
We are over it's DONE - there's nothing for us

I can't hear no, see no, speak no
Get me out' this stone cold, black hole
Looking so hard to find and get back what you stole
I can't hear no, see no, speak no
Find a way to take back control
Cos this time I know for sure I'm letting you go

All the promises you made
Were too little and too late
You're my number one mistake
And I'm never gonna ever make again

Le-le-letting go, le-le-letting go - ca-
can't hear no see no speak no

I can't hear no, see no, speak no
Get me out' this stone cold, black hole
Looking so hard to find and get back what you stole
I can't hear no, see no, speak no
Find a way to take back control
Cos this time I know for sure I'm letting you go
