Second Chance

Rickie Lee Jones

Summertime and everything is sweet Walking barefoot to the circle k On the burning street Summertime and everything's on fire This town is a drive-by for the Whole inland empire

But down on the boulevard They take it very hard but it's alright, it's OK I was going to move out of here anyway Don't look at me, I've got nothing to say Countdown to ecstasy

They are very rich, those boys uptown They got so much now they wanna Let it trickle down

La la la la la la

Summertime and everything is chill Cops and gangsters cruising Everybody's dressed to kill

Summertime and everything is cool In the halfway house for sex offenders By the school

They're laughing, they're dancing They're calling everyone

Step right up, don't be shy
Buy a second chance
You need a favor?
I got a guy
Who can buy you a second chance...

But it's alright with me If they lock you up Then I can be free Six of you Half a dozen of me So count down... Alright, OK, I was gonna move out of there anyway Don't look at me I've got nothing to say As you countdown to ecstasy Countdown to ecstasy
