

Gold

Ricky Dillon

No tears and no fears, it's ok
No pain without them, it'll be alright
Yeah, alright
Don't listen to what they say, just walk away, don't be afraid
To have the shame, you're not to blame, it will be alright
We're alright, hold on

Now I'm able to walk strong on my own

This time I swear I mean it
I'mma do fine as long as I'm breathing
All that pain don't matter no more
This feeling's worth much more than gold
This time I'm more than what they see
I'mma be fine, we're going with me
Because all of that pain don't matter no more
This feeling's worth much more than gold

This feeling's worth much more than gold
This feeling's worth much more than gold

With more love and less chains to hold you down
You've gotta get up and stand up, you know you don't have to fight
It's alright, woah
No matter what, be cool, do you and stay true
Find your own lane and maintain, it will be alright
Woah

Now I'm able to walk strong on my own

This time I swear I mean it
I'mma do fine as long as I'm breathing
All that pain don't matter no more
This feeling's worth much more than gold
This time I'm more than what they see
I'mma be fine, we're going with me
Because all of that pain don't matter no more
This feeling's worth much more than gold

This feeling's worth much more than gold
This feeling's worth much more than gold

Now it's time to set myself free
Letting go of it all to experience me
Finally found what I'm looking for
So just trust in your heart and open the door

This time I swear I mean it
I'mma do fine as long as I'm breathing
All that pain don't matter no more
This feeling's worth much more than gold
This time I'm more than what they see
I'mma be fine, we're going with me
Because all of that pain don't matter no more
This feeling's worth much more than gold

This time I swear I mean it

I'mma do fine as long as I'm breathing
All that pain don't matter no more
This feeling's worth much more than gold
This time I'm more than what they see
I'mma be fine, we're going with me
Because all of that pain don't matter no more
This feeling's worth much more than gold
