

Faith

Rico Love

I used to have faith in you
Girl I used to believe everything you said
Oh, I used to have faith in you
Now I don't know who lays in my bed

Now I just can't keep the faith
Maybe it's the things I did to hurt you
I used to have faith in you
That made me turn so cold, where did you go?
I used to have faith in you
Maybe you feel like I don't deserve you
I wish I felt like I did before
Back when I used to have faith
Back when I used to have faith
Back when I used to have

You be with your lineup, she be [?] that niggas' tables
You be drinkin' [?] bottles, you know that shit could be fatal
When her boyfriend playin' the lead, might try to hook you up
With one of them niggas who play on the same team
Oh an underground rapper who hates the mainstream
Fake [?] be doin' the same thing
It's every other nigga that you might meet
Don't make me bust that nigga head to the white meat

Don't make me pull up with them shooters, got bazookas out the sunroof
Guarantee ain't none of them niggas gun-proof
Paranoid from leavin' you a hard ruin
Ain't no tellin' what you capable of doin'

I used to have faith in you
Girl I used to believe everything you said
Oh, I used to have faith in you
Now I don't know who lays in my bed

Now I just can't keep the faith
Maybe it's the things I did to hurt you
I used to have faith in you
That made me turn so cold, where did you go?
I used to have faith in you
Maybe you feel like I don't deserve you
I wish I felt like I did before
Back when I used to have faith
Back when I used to have faith
Back when I used to have

Planned trips so you could see him
Laid up in his hotel
Only sent texts on WhatsApp
You had it planned so well
'Cause what goes around comes back
So it's my turn to burn
One day I'ma fuck his girl too
Pussy nigga play with, gon' learn
It could be in my head, you could be innocent
I could be right, it could be your friend with benefits
Paranoid from leavin' you a hard ruin

Ain't no tellin' what you capable of doin'

I used to have faith in you
Girl I used to believe everything you said
Oh, I used to have faith in you
Now I don't know who lays in my bed

Now I just can't keep the faith
Maybe it's the things I did to hurt you
I used to have faith in you
That made me turn so cold, where did you go?
I used to have faith in you
Maybe you feel like I don't deserve you
I wish I felt like I did before
Back when I used to have faith
Back when I used to have faith
Back when I used to have

Oh really? Back when you used to?
A faithful chick, you ain't used to
Put you in a studio with so and so and who's who Got no [?] but still chasin' that no no
Now you and you feelings wanna get the bus and
I got out with my girls, I'm cheatin' all the sudden
That's para-paranoia, para-paranoia
I'll pack your shit for your, left it in the foyer
What about the DM from you BM
My ex text me, you wild out when you seen it
But think about it while the streets you roam
[?] on me [?]

I used to have faith in you
Girl I used to believe everything you said
Oh, I used to have faith in you
Now I don't know who lays in my bed

Now I just can't keep the faith
Maybe it's the things I did to hurt you
I used to have faith in you
That made me turn so cold, where did you go?
I used to have faith in you
Maybe you feel like I don't deserve you
I wish I felt like I did before
Back when I used to have faith
Back when I used to have faith
Back when I used to have
