

Loving You Better

Rico Love

Maybe I wasn't loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you
Maybe I wasn't loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you
Maybe I wasn't

If that man can take my girl
Guess she really ain't my girl
If that man can take my girl
Guess she really ain't my girl

If he can give her all the love
She's only with me because she's used to it
And I make sure she's alright
Foolish I believe in us
She'll probably never [?]
She's used to it, and she knows I'll sacrifice

Everything just to see her smiling
Thought I was protecting my girl
But she's not with me, his number she's dialing
Wouldn't matter if I gave her the world

Maybe I wasn't loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you
Maybe I wasn't loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you
Maybe I wasn't

If that man can take my girl
Guess she really ain't my girl
If that man can take my girl
Guess she really ain't my girl
If that man can take my girl
Guess she really ain't my girl
If that man can take my girl
Guess she really ain't my girl

I was there to pick her up
But not the only one to fuck
He's doin' it
Hands all over my [?]
Usually I would fight for love
But not this time oh no because
She ruined it
Knowin' I'd sacrifice

Everything just to see her smiling
Thought I was protecting my girl

But she's not with me, his number she's dialing
Wouldn't matter if I gave her the world

Maybe I wasn't loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you
Maybe I wasn't loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you better
Loving you
Maybe I wasn't

If that man can take my girl
Guess she really ain't my girl
If that man can take my girl
Guess she really ain't my girl
If that man can take my girl
Guess she really ain't my girl
If that man can take my girl
Guess she really ain't my girl
