

The End of Days

Ride The Sky

Seeing a world cast in shadow
Seeing it all waste away
I am a flower fading
The last and none, none to come

I will live through the cleansing
I will bear witness to all
I'm gonna pray for us
For what's left behind
For our broken hearts

The end of days is drawing near
So the rain will fall like tears
But the dusk of life will be the dawn
And the circle will be drawn - again

Here is the wind, can you hear it?
Singing the song of rebirth
The song of you and me
The song that marks the new beginning

The end of days is drawing near
So the rain will fall like tears
But the dusk of life will be the dawn
And the circle will be drawn - again

Yeah, the end of days comes closer
What's left behind for us?
I want to know

The end of days is finally here
And the rain will fall like tears
So the dusk of life will be the dawn
And the circle will be drawn - again
