Jane speaks French, not a word is said For those who set sail on her waterbed It's a fetish cruise, our pleasure too Hmm business with you

Do ya feel like taking 'em down Do ya feel like taking 'em down
```

Love and hope, trust and faith
After prayer, it's back to Alice's place
Peaches and cream, angel food
If you can't get up then just get rude

```
Do ya feel like taking 'em down
```

```
Fight it all you want it's a love machine Fight it all you want it's a love machine Fight it all you want it's a love machine Fight it all you want it's a love machine
```

Jane's well aware that time's no friend Gravity's calling, the party will end But until it does, love's for lunch Half the world blows and half the world sucks

```
Do ya feel like taking 'em down
Do ya feel like taking 'em down
Do ya feel like taking 'em down

Fight it all you want it's a love machine
Fight it all you want it's a love machine
Fight it all you want it's a love machine
Fight it all you want it's a love machine
```

Do ya feel like taking 'em down

```
Fight it all you want it's a love machine
Fight it all you want it's a love machine
Fight it all you want it's a love machine
Fight it all you want it's a love machine
