

Peeling Arteries

Rings Of Saturn

Communication disrupted, scramble to the streets now fleeing like cowards

Mortals encased by an unworldly bacterium

Abruptly the heavens divide, and a portal appears

Families abducted, anatomy examined from the core

Strategically peeling all the arteries

Observing the effects deliberately

Strategically peeling all the arteries

The instruments used now brandished in blood

Demons of this alien race now rise and conquer

Those who lie above the waste are scattered and ensnared

Bones will now be liquified as saliva dissolves

To quench the thirst that provoked this deadly encounter

A horrific display of carnage

Those who survive, transported to our realm

Communication disrupted, scramble to the streets now fleeing like cowards

Mortals encased by an unworldly bacterium

Abruptly the heavens divide, and a portal appears

Families abducted, anatomy examined from the core
