

Ode To Alexander

Rob Rock

One breath of life
I will never be the same
With your open eyes
Everything I've known has changed

Lying beside you now I'm lost in a dream
All of my past has faded now that you breathe

Tiny miracle
You're depending upon me
My gift from above
Your innocence so sweet

With every new day dawning, the joy it will bring
With every step take now, a new world opens
