

Hardwired

Robbie Robertson

People marchin' for peace
While they're looking for a fight
Never heard the words of Dr. King
No, they never saw the light

There's two sides to every coin
But somethings never change
Maybe it's in our DNA
But people sure is strange

Hardwired
For love
Hardwired for war
It's a man's true nature

Hardwired
For God
Hardwired for sex
It's just a natural reflex
Uh

Well, I see we sent you weapons
So you'd always be a friend
Oh, but now we've gotta blow you up
That's a message that we send

People falling to their knees
Tryna keep the faith
There's a man upstairs lookin' down
With pity on the human race

Hardwired
For love
Hardwired for war
It's a man's true nature

Hardwired
For God
Hardwired for sex
It's like a natural reflex

Hardwired
For love
Hardwired for war
It's a man's true nature

Hardwired
For God
Hardwired for sex
It's just a natural reflex

Hardwired
For love
Hardwired for war
It's a man's true nature
Hardwired for God
Hardwired for sex

It's just a natural reflex
