

Bright Lights

Robert Glasper

Lost for words, I'm impatient
Oh no, my, I can't fake it
Out of lies, yeah
Girl, you're always on my mind

Ain't it great, yeah
I upgrade ya
You shine like constellation
I adore ya, appreciate ya, yeah, yeah

Ooh, you used to say
You wouldn't trust yourself
Found ways to run away, ooh

Every time you wear that dress you fuck with my head, fuck with my head
Those bright lights, shining on you standing there
I just wanna give you all of my attention, you're my obsession
Those bright lights, love the way they make you shine

Told him that you needed space
Said you need some time to think
You're looking for a peace of mind
Tired of crying all the time

He left you standing in the dark
Playing games with your heart
He don't deserve you, no
I'll catch you when you're falling down

Ooh, you used to say
You wouldn't trust yourself
Found ways to run away, ooh

Every time you wear that dress you fuck with my head, fuck with my head
Those bright lights, shining on you standing there
I just wanna give you all of my attention, you're my obsession
Those bright lights, love the way they make you shine

You tryna find the words to make you stay, to make you stay
When you just wanna run away, run away, you wanna run away
You tryna find the words to make you stay, to make you stay
When you just wanna run away, run away, you wanna run away

Every time you wear that dress you fuck with my head, fuck with my head
Those bright lights, shining on you standing there
I just wanna give you all of my attention, you're my obsession
Those bright lights, love the way they make you shine
