

Stella

Robert Palmer

No, no, no, no, no, no, Stella
Darling, watch your behavior
Whoooo Stella! Please mind your behavior
You had too much drink at the Christening
And now you don't know what you're doing
Get out my place I will tell you flat
Disadvantage for me to sell you another shot

So she bawled out:

"Go ahead and take your advantage
Go ahead, I give you privilege,"
Don't Worry, don't have no sympathy
This is between you and me
I can take care of meself
Be a love and bring the whiskey from the shelf
Only give me one or two
We will see who's taking advantage of who!"
