Under Suspicion

Robert Palmer

Well, I've been mistreated
Been lied to and cheated
Misused and abused
Like something that you throw away

First you fill me with thunder Then you let me go under You can run, you can hide But you ain't gonna get away

'Coz you're under suspicion
Of leaving the scene of a broken heart
Under suspicion
Of a hit and run love affair

You ain't got a conscience And you made me the victim Of a cruel and unusual crime Now you're under suspicion

Under suspicion, under suspicion Under suspicion of a hit and run love affair Hey, yeah, yeah, whoo

No matter where you be going I got ways of knowing And somewhere down the line You're gonna have to pay

Hey, 'coz you're under suspicion Of leaving the scene of a broken heart, yeah Under suspicion of a hit and run love affair

You ain't got a conscience And you made me the victim Of a cruel and unusual crime Now you're under suspicion

Under suspicion, under suspicion Yeah, under suspicion of a hit and run love affair Yeah, yeah, yeah Under suspicion, under suspicion Ain't got no where to run

'Coz you're under suspicion
Under suspicion, under suspicion
Under suspicion
Of leavin' the scene of a broken heart
Under suspicion
Yeah, under suspicion of a hit and run love affair
