

You're So Desirable

Robert Palmer

You're so desirable
I can't resist you
You're so desirable
I have to give in

That firm resolve I made
Has vanished away now
I'm happy to say now
You win

You're so adorable
The moment I saw you
It's just deplorable
The fool that I've been

And so I'm glad
You've got my heart dear
Like a butterfly on a pin
You're so desirable
I have to give in

That firm resolve I made
Has vanished away now
I'm happy to say now
You win

You're so adorable
The moment I saw you
It's just deplorable
The fool that I've been

And so I'm glad
You've got my heart dear
Like a butterfly on a pin
You're so desirable
I have to give in
