

River

Roberta Flack

There's a river somewhere
That flows through the lives of everyone
It flows through the mountains and the valleys
And the meadows of time (yes it do)
There's a star in the sky
That brightens the lives of everyone
It brightens the mountains and the valleys
And the meadows of time (yes it do)

Yes it do....

There's a star in your eyes
That brightens the lives of everyone
It brightens the mountains and the valleys
And the meadows of time (yes it do)
There's a sweet song of love
That sweetens the lives of everyone
It sweetens the mountains and the valleys
And the meadows of time (yes it do)

Yes it do...
