Gone Gone Gone

No more room to roam I have lost my hope Stars have all gone in Which way have I been I'm too rich to learn And far to cold to burn

Gone gone are the days, I cried When I could so easily have tried Work, work, when instead I laughed And nothing now I have

Hoping much too long My eyes are not so strong I just can not see What is right and wrong

Gone gone are the days, I cried When I could so easily have tried Work, work, when instead I laughed And nothing now I have

Ahh
