

I Believe In Miracles

Robin Gibb

I don't believe in love.
I'm not afraid of the night.
People who follow their hearts survive.

Don't need the chains of life.
I am no refugee.
They say that the eyes of the soul surrender.

Give me little loving, can we set the world alight?
Every thing I wanted walking right beside me, baby.
When I think I'm losing, I just look at you and...

Baby, I believe in miracles,
Burning through the night.
Shining with the power of lightning,
So exciting.
I'm on a journey,
I don't know if I can make it on my own.

Baby, I believe in miracles.
Destination, your desire.
And baby, oh sweet baby.

I can't agree with war.
It's not important to me.
The stranger that stands in the wind survives.

Give me little loving, can we set the world alight?
Every thing I wanted walking right beside me, baby.
When I think I'm losing, I just look at you and...

Baby, I believe in miracles,
Burning through the night.
Shining with the power of lightning,
So exciting.
I'm on a journey,
I don't know if I can make it on my own.

Baby, I believe in miracles...
