

Sanctuary

Robin Gibb

Not a minute I remember that I doubted you
In the middle of a crisis, I would count on you
And baby, you're what I am
Yes baby
Having you beside me I could do no wrong
And a pack of wild horses couldn't keep me long from you, babe
You're what I am
Oh yes baby

Hey now, don't think twice
We could be together in paradise
And hey now, don't look back
We can face tomorrow if we stay on track, oh yeah

Sanctuary, oh yeah
Sanctuary, oh yeah
Sanctuary, yeah yeah yeah yeah
Sanctuary, oh yeah

I went looking for an angel that would save my soul
And a devil in disguise to make me lose control
And baby, you're part of me
The secret of the universe and all it means
I was caught up in a boulevard of broken dreams
And baby, you hold the key
Oh yes baby

Hey now, don't think twice
We could be together in paradise
And hey now, don't look back
We can face tomorrow if we stay on track, oh yeah

Sanctuary, oh yeah
Sanctuary, oh yeah
Sanctuary, yeah yeah yeah yeah
Sanctuary, oh yeah

Not a minute I remember that I doubted you
In the middle of a crisis, I would count on you
And baby, you're what I am
Yes baby, you're what I am

Sanctuary, oh yeah
Sanctuary, oh yeah
Sanctuary

But I need the space [?]
And I need to survive the human race
And I don't want, I need somebody
To share the pain, to share the pain
