

Solid

Robin Gibb

I'd go through the war for you
Break the law for you
There's not a thing I wouldn't do
I'd go down on bended knees
Sail the seven seas
And, baby, you're my life and soul

I never dreamt I'd feel so alive
Without you I would die inside
I was reborn the day you arrived
I never would betray you

This love is solid and I swear
My oath upon it
This love is solid and so rare
This love is solid

You are the wind that blows
And the sky that glows
In short the very air I breathe
I'd lay down my life for you
Turn the tide for you
I never could deceive you

I'd make a pledge whatever is worth
And there I'll write it out in verse
You are the Holy Grail incarnate
The center of my universe

This love is solid and I swear
My oath upon it
This love is solid, I declare
This love is solid

Love, love, love
Love, love, love

I'd be a fool to stay
And watch you walk away
And maybe lose my soulmate
And in the lonely streets
I would call your name
And hope and pray it ain't too late

You give my spirit a reason to fly
My life is in your hands
My life is in your hands, oh

This love is solid, I know that this feeling is true
This love is solid and stronger than steel
This love is precious and from the beginning we fall
It's set in stone and it's signed with seal

This love is solid and I swear
My oath upon it
This love is solid, I declare
This love is solid

(This love is solid)
My life is in your hands
(This love is solid)
Oh, yeah, yeah yeah
(This love is solid)
This love is solid
(This love is solid)
This love is solid, solid, solid
(This love is solid)
(This love is solid)
(This love is solid)
(This love is solid)
