Go to Hell

Robin McKelle

Now if your mind lies in the Devil's workshop And evil duens yo ur thrill And trouble and mischief is all you live for You know darn well That you'll go to hell

So you're living high and mighty Rich off the fat of the land J ust don't dispose of your natural soul 'cos you know darn well That you'll go to hell

I say hell Where your natural soul burns Hell Where you pay for your sins Hell Keep your children from wrongdoing 'cos you kno w darn well That they'll go to hell.

I say hell Man, woman were created Hell To live for eternity He ll With an apple they ate from the tree of hate So you know dar n well That they went to hell

Now Satan was an angel in heaven But he stirred up trouble and woe So the LORD commanded that the Devil be branded So you know darn well He went to hell Yeah, he went to hell Yeah, he went to hell He went to hell.
