

Heaven Or Hell

Roch Voisine

You hang tough
Against love
Your heart beats
But you deny it and then
You tell lies
Through your sies
You take aim
And make me want you again
There's nothing left in my soul
But the sound of your name
Heaven or hell
Which one are you woman
Heaven or hell
Which side of the token
You do it so well
I'm already broken
Between heaven or hell
Guess I've already chosen
You play cool
Keep yourself on the move
You play wise
Wear your heart in disguise
You say you might
But then you run out of sight
Your love games
I swear one day will drive me insane
I got to give it to you
You're all pain but no gain
