

In her eyes
all is purple.
In her eyes
everyone's far away.
In her eyes
all is purple.
In her eyes.

Bright lights are blinding,
nothing lasts so long.
Break the wishbone,
disappear.
All you know is going home.

Standing up is harder,
blend in and follow.
If his blood is poisoned so is yours.

Crying out, let me in, Raven.
All of your secrets are locked away.
Your eyes are slowly turning red.

The beat keeps on beating,
keep on hiding.
The darkness is calming and keeps you away from the monsters that hide all around and in your bed

We can't see you,
when you're holding these hands of steel.
We can't see you.

Run away and never look back,
run away and never look back.
Cut the line and carry on through,
cut the line and carry on through.
