CHORUS:

- I love being lonesome, but I don't like being lonely I wake up in the morning and there's no one lying beside me
- I love em and leave em so I'll never find my one and only
- I love being lonesome but I don't like being lonely

VERSE:

- I'm a rider on a wild horse in the canyon running through the night
- I love that I have freedom in my soul and the way I live my life
- But even cowboys need a lady's soft touch to help us settle down
- But I love to hear the music in my heart and the way the highway sounds

CHORUS:

- I love being lonesome, but I don't like being lonely I wake up in the morning and there's no one lying beside me
- I love em and leave em so I'll never find my one and only  $\ensuremath{\mathsf{S}}$
- I love being lonesome but I don't like being lonely
- I've tried and tried a thousnad times to make it work but I don't understand
- The difference in the feelings of a woman and the feelings of a man
- I run away each time I get a chance to fall in love and it just kills me
- I need to find a lover I can trust a woman who can heal  $\ensuremath{\mathsf{me}}$
- I love being lonesome, but I don't like being lonely
- I wake up in the morning and there's no one lying beside me
- I love em and leave em so I'll never find my one and only
- I love being lonesome but I don't like being lonely
