

I've Got Your Love

Roger Daltrey

I don't need no fortune
I'll tell you the reason why
'Cause I've got more than anything
The money just can buy

I've got your love, love, love
That's more than anything
The money can buy
'Cause money can't buy that kind of love

I was lost, I was drifting
That I can't deny
But then you gave your heart to me
You said, let's give love a try

I've got your love
Here to hold me
Against the tide
You now hold me against the tide

You know a man sworn to nothing
Can make you wanna cry
I came to my senses, baby
So dry your eyes

I've got your love, love, love
You gave me more than anything
(More than anything)
The money can buy

I was lost, I was rolling
That I won't deny
Come in and keep your heart to me
Saying, let's give love a try

I've got your love, love, love, love, love
Holding me against the tide
Ooh, against the tide
Holding me against the tide
Your love is holding me
Against the tide

I've got your love, love, love
Hold back the tide
