

You Haven't Done Nothing

Roger Daltrey

We are amazed but not amused
At all the things you say that you'll do
Though much concerned but not involved
With decisions that are made by you

But we are sick and tired of hearing your song
Telling how you are gonna change right from wrong
'Cause if you really want to hear our views
You haven't done nothin'

It's not too cool to be ridiculed
But you brought this upon yourself
'Cause the world is tired of pacifiers
We want the truth and nothin' else

And we are sick and tired of hearing your song
Telling how you are gonna change right from wrong
But if you really want to hear our views
You haven't done nothin'

We do not care to wake up to the nightmare
That's becoming real life
But when you're mislead who knows a person's mind
Can turn as cold as ice uh huh

Why do you keep on making us hear your song
Telling us how you are changing right from wrong?
'Cause if you really want to hear our views
You ain't done nothin'

You ain't done nothin'
(Ain't done nothin', ooh, yeah, yeah, yeah)
(Ain't done nothin', no, no, no, you ain't done nothin')
(Ain't done nothin')
(Ain't done nothin')
(Ain't done nothin')
