

Hitch-Hiker

Roger Miller

Hitch-hiker, hitch-hiker
Like a restless tiger you can't stand still
And you never will

Here I stand and the cars go by
Some of them honk and some just wave hi
It seems like life and the cars both just pass me by
Hitch-hiker

No special place to be going
I just go whichever way the winds blowin'
You know it's hot today

I'd kinda like to go where it's snowin'
Ah I dunno maybe I'll just stay here where the green grass is growin'

Here comes another car I wonder
Is he slowing down, hitch-hiker

Hitch-hiker, hitch-hiker
like a restless tiger you can't stand still
And you never will

I guess boys all dream and so did I
My hands once reached to touch the sky
Is this the sky that I reached for Just the dust of the road and nothin' more

Here comes another car
Hitch-hiker

Hitch-hiker, hitch-hiker
Like a restless tiger you can't stand still
And you never will
