

Surrender

Roger Taylor

Em

Same cycle happen every day
Same characters same play
My game plan's become clear
Gotta find a way out of here

There ain't no place to run
No welcome mat in my home
No love here, no life
He want a punchbag, not a wife

C

You can't hurt me now

No hope left, just pain
Whiskey on his breath, violence in his brain
Scared kids, with scarred minds
Surrender reason, love is blind

Surrender life, surrender love
Surrender belief in God above
Surrender hope, bow down to fear
Surrender life, there ain't much here
