

Stay?

Rogue Traders

If you wanna leave me now,
I won't be standing in your way.
You've got do what you thinks right,
I feel my heart just float away.

I won't ask you to stay,
I won't leave you that way.
I won't you to stay,
I won't leave you that way.

Did you ever really care?
When everything is said and done.
There's a pattern to your lies,
I know I'm not the only one.

I won't ask you to stay,
I won't leave you that way.
I won't you to stay,
I won't leave you that way.

If you wanna leave me now,
I won't be standing in your way.
You've got do what you thinks right,
I feel my heart just float away.

I won't ask you to stay,
I won't leave you that way.
I won't you to stay,
I won't leave you that way.

Did you ever really care? (8x)
