

Night Of The Vampire

Roky Erickson

Tonight
is the night of the vampire
Tonight
is the night of the vampire

If its raining and you're running don't slip in mud
'Cause if you do, you'll slip in blood
Tonight
is the night of the vampire

Tonight
is the night of the vampire

The moon may be full
The moon may be white
All I know is you will feel his bite
Tonight
is the night of the vampire

Me castle bran Transylvania On St. Swithun's day he was born Eyes stare through the darkness with no form Maidens his bite harms

Tonight
is the night of the vampire
Tonight
is the night of the vampire

He never sleeps in the night Comes out when the moon is bright
Tonight
is the night of the vampire
