

You Don't Love Me Yet

Roky Erickson

Lightning never strikes anymore but I can't make it rain
Because it would only lightning again
Lightning never strikes anymore but I can't make it rain
Because it would only cause me pain

Because you don't love me yet, you don't love me yet
I just would forget because you don't love me
You don't love me yet

I have my start but I never have begun
Because without you my life is unsung
I have my start but I don't have a part
Because without you only breaks my heart

Because you don't love me yet, you don't love me yet
I just would forget because you don't love me
You don't love me yet

You don't love me yet
I just would forget
Because you don't love me, you don't love me yet

To be or not to be
That's the question unceasingly
But with you I would know to be is to be
Because without you I'm not a king
Because without you it would never do
Because I can't think what life would be like without you

Because you don't love me yet, you don't love me yet
I just would forget
Because you don't love me, you don't love me yet
Oh no, because you don't love me, you don't love me yet
Oh no, because you don't love me, you don't love me yet
