

Rolling

Roman Lob

Soon away, I will find my across the ocean
Every day, it's like I'm living in some ocean
I know how to wait
I got to skip behind horizons
I got to find a way
And then the bad dream rises

I wanna share my emotions
And my thoughts are flying higher
So the whole world will notice
I wanna live before i die

I'm rolling and can't be stopped
I can see the signs between the lines
I'm rollin' and I can't be stopped
If it's all I got, I don't give a fuck
Cause I curse all the words I've heard
Does it hurt you?
Here's what I'm telling you
I'm rolling and I can't be stopped for sure

Wanna share my emotions and my thoughts are flying higher
So the whole world will notice
I wanna live before I die
Fly away, fly away

I'm rolling and can't be stopped
I can see the signs between the lines
I'm rollin' and I can't be stopped
If it's all I got, I don't give a fuck
Cause I curse all the words I've heard
Does it hurt you?
Here's what I'm telling you
I'm rolling and I can't be stopped for sure
