

A Farewell to Europe

Rome

So long, Europe
You've been good to me
But halting and resting for long will leave me blind and weak

O, so long, Europe
You've been all too kind
It's time to walk;
Time to see
What's left in my mind

So long, Europe
You've been sanctuaried [?]
O, how far a movie arc
From the dreams that you've preached [?]

O, so long, Europe
(So long)
You've been good to me
(So long)
But halting and resting for long will leave me blind and weak
(Blind and weak)

O, so long, Europe
(So long)
You've been all too kind
(So long)
It's time to walk;
Time to see
What's left in my mind

O, so long, Europe
(So long)
You've been sanctuaried [?]
O, how far a movie arc
From the dreams that you've preached [?]

O, so long, Europe
(So long)
You've been good to me
(So long)
But halting and resting for long will leave me blind and weak
