

Dedication

Rome

I can taste the gin and oxy on your lips
I'll divide the world and fall between your hips
There's no way that I can save your life
When you can't even open your eyes
And I tried to right your wrongs
But I just end up with all of your lies

Whoa oh oh oh...

Such a pretty face but such an ugly mess
You got everyone but choose the loneliness
Yeah we crash and burn
And we argue to the point of no return
Yeah I'm finally done
And this song's been sung
So this I dedicate to you

Whoa oh oh oh...

Oh baby it's a dedication, a dedication
This is dedicated to you
Baby it's a dedication, a dedication
This is dedicated to you

For the times we had
For the good and bad
This is dedicated to you
Such a pretty face that I must erase
This is dedicated to you
Oh baby it's a dedication, a dedication
This is dedicated to you
Baby it's a dedication, a dedication
This is dedicated to you

Whoa oh oh oh...
