Ohhh
yes you are tell me the truth Tell me the truth now baby have you found another lover someone who cares
and holds you tight
i won't crv
i won't shed a tear but when your well runs dry you're gonna miss my loving baby the way i hold and touch and kiss
The way i do you like this and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that now one day
you'll see, it'll be reality and all pain will come you'll search for me
high and low
but all remains is a memory of how i used to hold and touch and squeeze you baby I,
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this

and do you like that
