

Broken Neon Hearts

Ronnie Dunn

There's an old troubadour up on the barstool
Dim lit strangers out on the dance floor
Double Black Jack whiskey
Floatin' on Coke and ice

Lonesome steel guitar cryin' through the conversation
In this roadside county line dive location
Ladies half
Two for one Tuesday night

It's where the lost and lonely go
It's where the endless cold beer flows
Music plays and the healin' starts
For the lonesome blue, broken neon hearts

With the boys in the band layin' down Whitley
Late-night slow dance to Miami My Amy

One more round
'Til the lights come on

Some folks say it's a hole in the wall
Come on in, in here you see it all
Late last call
Then we take it on home
It's where the lost and lonely go
Where the endless cold beer flows
Music plays and the healin' starts
For the lonesome blue, broken neon hearts

It's where the lost and lonely go
Where the endless cold beer flows
Music plays and the healin' starts
For the lonesome blue, broken neon hearts
The lonesome blue, broken neon hearts
