

Almost Mine

Ronnie Milsap

I want you to want me
Don't be afraid let your heart fall
Cause I'm falling too
I'd love you to love me
Some people says there's an all life
Trough to find someone like you

Almost, so close that I can almost taste it
For so long I've watched them waiting
Trough the long lonely nights
And almost, my wait is almost over
Cause I've got a brain new feeling inside
That you're almost mine

I need you to need me
Whenever your life catch you down
And you need me around
Forever and after
Between the years and tears and smiles
The flame won't die

Almost, so close I can almost taste it
For so long I've watched them waiting
Trough the long lonely nights
And almost, my wait is almost over
Cause I've got a brain new feeling inside
That you're almost mine
That you're almost mine
