

Even Fools Get Lucky

Ronnie Milsap

I still ask, myself why
Your still here by my side
Cause you know me, even better than I do
Any fool, could see, you got no bargain with me
For all, the pain Ive put you through

You can see, the good in me
I lost hope, but you believe
I just thank God, that your still mine
Even fools, get lucky, sometimes

Once I came, oh so close
To loosing what I need the most
Thinking only of myself, I risked it all
Somehow you, pulled me through, just like you always do
For love, you went beyond the call.

I just thank God, that your still mine
Even fools, get lucky sometimes
