

Fireworks

Ronnie Milsap

I just want to celebrate
How you're loving me like I'm loving you
I just seem to gravitate Something's moving me like you want it to
I can hardly wait
So baby, strike a match and light the fuse, ha Oh, one little kiss then there's fireworks in the middle of the afternoon

Whoa, you call me when you get a break
Say you need me now and I'm at the door
I meet you at our special place
3 o'clock, baby say no more
I can hardly wait
It's never too late, it's never too soon, no
Oh, one little kiss then there's fireworks in the middle of the afternoon

Just like a rocket that's going sky high
Burning right out of control
Loving as hot as the 4th of July (Oh, Lord)

So, I can hardly wait
It's never too late, it's never too soon, no, no
One little kiss then there's fireworks in the middle of the afternoon Oh yeah, one little kiss then there's fireworks in the middle of the afternoon

In the middle of the afternoon
Yeah

Alright
Whoa, that's hot

It's never too late
It's never too late
It's never too late
It's never too soon
(Firecrackers, roman candles)

I need your loving every day
I'm talking about love
In the middle of the afternoon
