

It Don't Hurt to Dream

Ronnie Milsap

Arms go ahead and hold her the way we want to Lips don't be shy kiss her the way we planned to
It will be our secret no one will ever know a thing
We're only dreaming and it don't hurt to dream.

Eyes keep on looking, ain't she a sight to see
Hands touch her hair... Is it really as soft as it seems Fingers caress her gently remove her wedding ring
We're only dreaming and it don't hurt to dream.

We're only dreaming, Lord, if it only were real
I know we could think up a thousand ways to show her how we feel
But we'll never have her... That's the way it's gotta be
We're only dreaming and it don't hurt to dream.

We'll keep on dreaming 'cause it don't hurt to dream...
