

On My Own

Ronnie Milsap

I'd like to think it's just a drink
And you're not as gone as it seems
And old empty closets, they just don't lie
I never saw a single sign
I thought our love was doing fine
Then everything changed, God only knows why

And I'm on my own, I'm all alone now
I can't live without your love
'Cause I don't know how (I don't know how)
I'm out in the cold, my future's on hold
And the past I can't talk about (can't talk about)
All I know is I'm on my own now

You didn't even say goodbye
But there was a time you'd almost die
If we had to spend one night apart
Somewhere between here and there
We just let go of the love we shared
If I had known then, I could have saved my heart

But I'm on my own, I'm all alone now
I can't live without your love
'Cause I don't know how (I don't know how)
Whoa, I'm out in the cold, my future's on hold
And the past I can't talk about (can't talk about)
All I know is I'm on my own now
Oh, God only knows why I'm on my own now
