

Remember To Remind Me (I'm Leaving)

Ronnie Milsap

You seem to know all the ways to hurt me
You drag me down as only you can
I've choked on my pride till I filled up inside
And once again I've taken all I can stand.

Remember to remind me I'm leaving
It seems I always forget
Remember to remind me I'm leaving
Someday I may make it yet.

I tell myself that today I'll be going
I pack my bags and rehearse what I'll say
But when you walk in it's I love you all over again
And I can't go I'll put it off one more day.

Remember to remind me I'm leaving
It seems I always forget
Remember to remind me I'm leaving
Someday I may make it yet.

Someday I may make it yet...
