

Colour In Your Heart

Roo Panes

I'm gonna colour in your heart
I'm gonna colour in your heart
I'm gonna colour in your heart
I'm gonna colour in your heart
I'm gonna colour in your heart
I'm gonna colour in your heart

You and me are like a daydream
Floatin' through your window lately
Who knows where we're goin', baby?
The colour in your love is bruising
It has never been your choosing
You feel like your beauty's losing

We're gonna colour in your heart
We're gonna colour in your heart
We're gonna colour in your heart
Oh, we're gonna colour in your heart
Believin' is a start
We're gonna colour in your heart

Gotta get wise to realise
Gotta ask why to feel alive
Even if it's tears that clear your eyes

So if it's gonna rain then we'll drop in puddles
So if it's gonna rain then we'll drop in puddles
If you look a little deeper
Then a bottle can hold the stars
Oh, if it's gonna rain then we'll drop in puddles
So if it's gonna rain then we'll drop in puddles
If you look a little deeper
Then a bottle can hold the stars, oh

We're gonna colour in your heart
We're gonna colour in your heart
We're gonna colour in your heart
Oh, we're gonna colour in your heart
Believin' is a start
We're gonna colour in your heart

Oh, we're gonna colour in your heart
Gonna colour in your heart
We're gonna colour in your heart
Oh, we're gonna colour in your heart
Believin' is a start
We're gonna colour in your heart

Oh, we're gonna colour in your heart
Gonna colour in your heart
We're gonna colour in your heart
Oh, we're gonna colour in your heart
Believin' is a start
We're gonna colour in your heart

I'm gonna colour in your heart
I'm gonna colour in your heart

I'm gonna colour in your heart
