

Deeper Than Shallow

Roo Panes

We were drifting deeper than shallow,
Where the ripples went I don't know, Mirror waters swam around our toes.
We were deeper than shallow, drifting deeper than shallow.

Sight to see beyond reflection's dancing eye-line,
and half-truth lessons.
Like a skylight you looked up at me,
and said 'I see you,
and you are deeper than shallow, you are deeper than shallow.'

And I felt known for the very first time, I felt seen for the very first time,
I felt loved for the very first time, oh, I felt seen for the very time.
