

Safe and Warm

Rose Royce

Love has played
Its games on you
Once too many times
So you feel
Your heart's had enough
Of love's foolish lies

So when you're down
And you meet someone around
Who's gonna comfort you
Through the storm
And when you're cold
And you need someone to hold
Why don't you let me keep you
Safe and warm

You can't run away from love
Girl, there's no place to hide
You see, you see
Everyone needs love, sometimes
To bring a peace of mind

So when you're down
And you meet someone around
Who's gonna comfort you
Through the storm
And when you're cold
And you need someone to hold
Why don't you let me keep you
Safe and warm

I'm the one you need, yeah
Why don't you let me keep you
Safe and warm
I'm the one you need, yeah
Why don't you let me keep you
Safe and warm
Love has played its crazy games on you
So you feel that your heart has had enough
You need someone to turn to
And I know I'm the one to bring you through
So please let me, let me, let me love you

So when you're down
And you meet someone around
Who's gonna comfort you
Through the storm
And when you're cold
And you need someone to hold
Why don't you let me keep you
Let me, let me, let me
Set you free, yeah

I want you to rescue me, girl
Yeah, trust me girl
Safe and warm
