

Still In Love

Rose Royce

Here I am, staring at these four walls, again
Wishing that you and I were here alone, again

See, I still want your touch at night
And I still wanna hold you tight
I'm on fire when I'm next to you
No one else can do the things you do

Don't you know I'm still in love?
Still in love
Still in love
Still in love

My body's weak
My mind is filled with memories of you and I
Every night
I wish that you were lying by my side

See I still want your touch at night
And I still wanna hold you tight
I'm on fire when I'm next to you
No one else can do the things you do
Your every command is my every wish
Boy, what I wouldn't do to kiss your lips
Many men have shot their best shot
But you're the only one that hits the spot

Don't you know I'm still in love?
Still in love
Still in love
Still in love
Still in love
Still in love
Still in love
I'm still in love with you

See, I still want your touch at night
And I still wanna hold you tight
I'm on fire when I'm next to you
No one else can do the things you do

Don't you know I'm still in love?
Still in love
Still in love
Still in love with you
