

Leaving Detroit

Roses Are Red

Long since I've been here been with the friends I hold so dear It's just the way it makes me feel so real pull up to see your smiling face I'd rather be no other place another home away from home we're wide awake at dawn time to be moving on been dreaming all my life it's the last night
I'm going home with the wrecking crew all night down Van Dyke to Sterling Heights thinking about the times we had so glad you've given us more than you will know pack up the van it's time to go another home away from home and this is all I'll ever need and this is all I want tonight.
