We knew this day would come
The inevitable harm that would be done
We process the needs
Of faith in maths and all the dreams
Back around, the human cost
Focus gone by a itch of lust
For sympathy is sin
We're here for us, we're here to win

We didn't really understand these things This is a new low We didn't really understand these things This is a new low We didn't really understand these things This is a new low This is a new low Here for you All you do is downplay All you do is downplay Every mistake you make Laws you uphold, you break All you do is downplay All you do is downplay Every mistake you make Laws you uphold, you break

Evaluation's done Dehumanising everyone

Cut and dry
Black and white
Should I laugh?
Should I cry?

All you do is downplay
All you do is downplay
Every mistake you make
Laws you uphold, you break
All you do is downplay
All you do is downplay
Every mistake you make
Laws you uphold, you break

All you do is downplay
All you do is downplay
Every mistake you make
Laws you uphold, you break
All you do is downplay
All you do is downplay
Every mistake you make
Laws you uphold, you break
We didn't really understand these things
This is a new low
We didn't really understand these things
This is a new low
We didn't really understand these things
This is a new low
This is a new low

This is a new low Here for you
