

Tomorrow for Us

Rosetta Stone

You're so much better than them
Congratulations on that
Simplify, generalize and condemn them

Do you think this was a choice for me?
That I threw my life away for a chance to live in poverty
A sequence of events on repeat for infinity
A costly price you intervene to set us free

There's no tomorrow for us
No tunnel of light for us to see
No opportunities for us
No aspirations or dreams
Our communities are f*cked
Evolved to shit where we eat
No one'll want to nurture us
One line the privileged leads
Enjoy your life through random view
No need to wage success
You were born with the best
Of everything

Do you think this was a choice for me?
That I threw my life away for a chance to live in poverty
A sequence of events on repeat for infinity

A costly price you intervene to set us free

There's no tomorrow for us
No tunnel of light for us to see
No opportunities for us
No aspirations or dreams
Our communities are f*cked
Evolved to shit where we eat
No one'll want to nurture us
One line the privileged leads

There's no tomorrow for us
No tunnel of light for us to see
No opportunities for us
No aspirations or dreams
Our communities are f*cked
Evolved to shit where we eat
No one'll want to nurture us
One life the privileged
There's no tomorrow for us
No tunnel of light for us to see
No opportunities for us
No aspirations or dreams
Our communities are f*cked
Evolved to shit where we eat
No one'll want to nurture us
