His Sleeping Majesty

Rotting Christ

Broken faces behind the idol Self sacrifce believers once (betrayed) Those who disregarded (authorities) In deadly position they offend

The junless domain
For ages and ages
Where his sleeping majesty
Under the black sand

Skeletoned shapes look lifeless Thrones disappear in dusty (old centuries) Where glory hide the myth Nothing to see those who died

The junless domain
For ages and ages
Where his sleeping majesty
Under the black sand

Invaders who follow the legends Spread mouth to mouth Approach the phenomically quiet graveyard

Well hidden lonny sentinels Around his sandy dwelling Out of date carnivorous suvivorous They offend his sleeping majesty

The events can be said by human words So strength so hate to those who dare They break the frontiers and they come Now dust of melting bones Mixed with the Sandy land

Broken faces behind the idol Self sacrifce believers once (betrayed) Those who disregarded (authorities) In deadly position they offend
